

Vision of Earning Wellness and Wholeness

With the help of our Higher Power as our employer, the following promises are manifested in our lives:

1. We do what must be done promptly, and we consistently use our time to support our vision and further our goals.
2. We are drawn to and quickly embrace ideas that expand our life and career and that increase our profitability.
3. We act from our consciousness of our true value and worth.
4. We release possessions that no longer serve us thus staying in the prosperous flow.
5. We work in a balanced, consistent, self-loving way.
6. We choose actions and commitments that serve our needs and contribute to our prosperity, in accordance with our Higher Power's will for us.
7. We request and receive increases in compensation and also what the market will bear.
8. We embrace working with others whenever having co-workers, associates or employees serves.
9. We experience the physical vitality and health that supports our self-expression and expansion.
10. We feel at ease and even joyful when asking for or being given what we need or what we are owed.
11. We follow up on opportunities, leads, or jobs that could be profitable. We complete projects and tasks that we begin.
12. We work harmoniously and in a spirit of service with co-workers, supervisors and clients, generating good will that results in ever-greater financial prosperity.
